A 6-3 middle blocker from Mogadore, Ohio, Rowell highlighted her weekend with a career performance to lead the Black Knights to a pair of victories and the outright Patriot League regular-season title.

Rowell started the weekend by hitting .500 with 11 kills and four blocks as Army swept past Lafayette. She then followed that up with another four blocks and a career-best 17 kills in another sweep for the Black Knights, this time over Lehigh.

That second victory locked up the league regular-season title and earned Army the right to host this weekend's Patriot League Tournament. It's the first time since 1994 the Black Knights have played host, and also the first time since American joined the league in 2001 it hasn't hosted the tournament.

For the weekend, Rowell led the Black Knights in kills, hitting percentage and blocks as she averaged 4.67 kills per set on .442 hitting while also putting back 1.33 blocks per set. Additionally, the strong play earned the junior her first Patriot League Player of the Week award.
